ORDER:

Though the petitioner has furnished the number of the application, no details have been furnished by the petitioner as to the date, on which the application was submitted, nor any acknowledgement is produced to show that it was actually received by the respondent.

In the circumstances, the Writ of Mandamus as prayed for cannot be granted. However, in case the petitioner approaches the respondent and furnishes the number of the application form and other necessary details, the respondent is directed to verify whether such application has been received within the time prescribed and if it is found to be in order the hall-ticket shall be issued to the petitioner.

The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
